9th New York International Ballet Competition June 20-24, 2007

NEW YORK
INTERNATIONAL
BALLET COMPETITION

NYIBC
119 West 57th Street, Suite 1215
New York, NY 10019

Take advantage of this unique opportunity before these talented dancers are swept away by the leading ballet companies of the world. Witness the launching of the stars of tomorrow.

"...a balletomane's dream."
Jennifer Dunning, The New York Times

"It was an innovative idea to have all competitors perform the same choreography."
Clive Barnes, New York Post

"Nothing is quite like the excitement of seeing young dancers perform, not just for applause but for the traditional Gold, Silver and Bronze Medals."
Jennifer Dunning, The New York Times

The 9th NYIBC hosts talented young dancers, ages 17-24, from around the world for three weeks of repertoire study, and mentoring by master teachers and coaches. Join them as they perform and compete for Gold, Silver and Bronze Medals. Two promising stars will receive the Igor Youskevitch Award (a one-year contract with American Ballet Theatre) and the Arpino Award (a one-year contract with The Joffrey Ballet).
